

Heb 10:25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Verse 25. Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together. That is, for purposes of public worship. But the more obvious interpretation is that which is commonly adopted, that it refers to public worship.

We need to remember to come together for public worship, and to encourage one another to do good. Coming together also helps us grow in love for each other and helps us to be able to help one another. When someone misses church we should contact them to make sure they are ok and to let them know we are concerned about them. We need to think about one another and let everyone know we love them, are concerned about them, and encourage them to come to God's house for worship and fellowship with other brothers and sisters in Christ.
